

The vision is to provide a high quality, innovatively designed Concert Hall which together with existing cultural facilities will extend the 'Wimbledon Brand' not only to include its tennis but celebrate its importance as a regional, national, and international arts and education quarter.

A 1250 seat main auditorium, designed to the highest acoustic standards, equipped with state-of-the-art lighting, projection, broadcasting and broadband connectivity will fill a much-needed gap in the London music scene.

at the heart of a new Arts Quarter, will transform the character and heart of Wimbledon Town Centre, with great economic, social, and cultural benefit to the community.
